

530 Mount Hercules Road RAZORBACK, NSW

The Razorback Life

There is so much to love about the acreage lifestyle. It's the simple things like the crisp fresh air, the light ping of the bell birds singing and the peaceful surroundings which make it extremely hard not to relax, welcome to the Razorback life.

Stepping outside you are greeted with 360 degree views of your very own secluded 25 acre countryside. The property also includes a huge shed perfect for storage, workshop and parking. Water is one of our most valued resources and with a number of dams this property is perfect for irrigating and livestock....

This home has all the essentials that you could ever need in a rural property, which makes it great value and an exciting chance to make it your own....
