Entry Level Excellence!

Cute as a button and drenched in glorious sunlight, this immaculately presented two bedroom apartment will instantly capture your heart.

Tucked privately at the rear of a small block and offering a convenient ground-floor position, its open plan living and dining area with polished timber floorboards give it a cosy feel from the moment you open the door. Boasting a new Caesarstone and white polyurethane kitchen with quality appliances and a generous pantry, as well as a recently renovated bathroom which lets in loads of natural light, it provides easy, modern living for the buyer looking for the simple life.
