

22/630 Pacific Highway Killara, NSW

2 1 1

Size leaves a lasting impression

The sheer size of this elevated apartment is the first thing that registers, then the retro appeal of its originality demands the attention and, last by no means least, the natural light and attractive leafy outlooks leave a lasting impression. All these elements combine to create a sensational partnership, set back from the street and close to railway station & the Greengate Hotel.
