The Birches - Mount Gibraltar

Once in a while, you walk into a home that simply takes your breath away. The Birches does just that. Located on Oxley Drive, Mittagong, this wonderful, architecturally-designed home is set on 4,290sqm of manicured gardens with captivating views of Mount Alexandria.

- Minimal aesthetic, generous light-filled spaces and elevated position create privacy and inspired liveability in this thoughtfully designed four-bedroom abode. - Open plan living provides the functionality and flexibility required by a modern family, while panoramic views ensure a spectacular backdrop to your new life.

- With three large bedrooms, and a fourth bedroom or studio with separate access, this home is thoughtfully designed to maximise the northerly aspect. Living areas feature open plan kitchen/ family/ dining room, a conservatory-style sitting room with combustion fire, and a cosy lounge and wine room.

- A detached guest cottage offers two additional bedrooms and bathrooms, with a spacious kitchen / living / dining area opening up to a deck and of course the majestic views of the Mountain beyond.
