Original property offering a blank canvas opportunity

Make no mistake, this original freestanding residence needs renovation work, but with a prime address on a level landholding, it presents a rare opportunity with exciting future potential. It is a virtual blank canvas that's ready for builders or those looking for a renovation project to get creative and make their mark and add some value to a solid double brick bungalow. This prized setting is renowned for its lifestyle convenience and is within walking distance to shops, Kogarah train station, schools, hospitals and TAFE.

- A solid double brick home in need of an immediate renovation
- On a level 420sqm block with a bright easterly rear aspect
- Presented in original condition with high ornate ceilings
- Generous single level layout with a roomy living area
- Three super spacious bedrooms and a fully original kitchen
- Lock-up garage at the rear and off-street parking
- Huge potential for an update, renovation or a fresh start (STCA)
- Minutes from beaches, restaurants and cafes at Brighton-Le-Sands
