Classic home - great today, exceptional tomorrow

An elevated position and generous land size give this two-storey residence an exciting sense of potential. Big on future appeal and full of options, the well-presented 1970s property is very conveniently located in one of the best streets in Mount Pritchard, and is now primed for its next chapter in life. Move in, renovate or rebuild (STCA), the possibilities are plentiful for buyers looking to capitalise on a potential-packed family home.
