Endless potential with original home on huge level block

Tucked well back from the kerb on the northern side of one of Seaforth's premier residential streets, this original solid brick bungalow is a rare find in this sought-after suburb. Tightly held and loved for 40 years, this well-maintained single level family home sits on a huge level 721m2 freehold block and is one of the area's few remaining undercapitalised gems. Move straight in and update and refresh, or start planning your dream home (STCA).
