

50 Kinka Road Seal Rocks, NSW

Original beach-side fisherman's cottage

The magnificent and beautiful Seal Rocks NSW is home to a very select few. A taste of yesteryear makes this magical area one of the most sought-after destinations on the mid North Coast of NSW.

This original fisherman's cottage overlooks the pristine waters of Boat Beach and Sugarloaf Bay, and enjoys privacy, serenity and boasts an incredible opportunity to secure one of Australia's premiere beach-side positions. Comprising two bedrooms plus small studio, with neat kitchen and living room with wood fireplace, updated bathroom and is surrounded by established gardens with side and front deck for entertaining or simply losing yourself in that view.
