Sleek style in a fully updated villa

A sleek interior update has refreshed this immaculately presented three-bedroom villa and created an easycare single-level home of light and style. Positioned within walking distance to downtown Kogarah, and just around the corner from Scarborough Park, it offers excellent value for money and makes a great choice for buyers or investors looking for a spacious and fully modernised property with perfect lifestyle convenience. From here it's also a few minutes to the hospital precinct, train station and major shopping amenities.
