Great family home with large separate office

This neat, versatile property offers a flexible layout to suit families of all sizes, along with a wonderfully large backyard for the kids and covered patio area for entertaining. Set well back from the road, the home features a spacious main living room, which incorporates separate dining, family room and galley kitchen. In addition, the enormous office space is ideal for working from home or running an own business. Close to Forrester Beach cafes and local shopping, with public transport almost at the front door and, best of all, the surf beach is just a few minutes away.
