The Perfect Starter

We are excited to present to you this recently renovated three bedroom home in a private and quiet street. The property is located only minutes from both the primary and high school with easy access to local shops and public transport. There's been some tasteful additions to the property with a renovated kitchen & bathroom, ducted air conditioning and new flooring ensuring all the hard work is already done. If you like outdoor entertaining you will be impressed with the oversized pergola area with plenty of yard and a large garden shed for storage. Please contact us for an inspection as this one won't last long at all.

Price: $835,000.00
