Entry level opportunity

If you are looking to enter the property market you will struggle to find a better opportunity than this one. Set in a quiet cul-de-sac street the property is in very neat condition with new paint, separate lounge room and ducted air conditioning. The external features will ensure people always want to visit with a good sized in-ground pool and side access offering plenty of yard for kids and pets to play. Please attend our scheduled showing as this one won't last long at all.
