Huge potential in a solid single-level residence

On a generous block with a deep level yard at the rear, this all-original full brick home needs attention but is perfectly liveable and offers superb scope to improve now and renovate when ready. It holds outstanding potential and endless possibilities for first-time buyers or families looking to make their mark in the highly popular Hurstville Grove market with the chance to add some TLC or completely redesign. It is very quietly positioned with easy access to Hurstville's major shopping attractions, as well as local shops and neighbourhood parklands.
