An inviting family classic with a big future

A whole range of buyers will be attracted to the size, scope and location offered by this solid brick two-storey residence. Presented in comfortable order, it sits on a prime corner landholding in one of Bexley North's most desirable cul-de-sacs that's within an easy stroll to the train station, local shops and schools. The property offers a spacious and well-presented home with lots of future possibilities for an update, renovation or even transformation (STCA) to take full advantage of its sought-after address.
