Charming, fresh and resplendent in sunlight, this fully renovated worker's cottage is the ultimate blend of old and new. Timber floorboards meet fresh white walls throughout the home, which is complete with a new stone-topped kitchen and a refreshed bathroom. Its living spaces at the rear are illuminated by a glass-roofed corridor, leading to a leafy north-facing courtyard. Set within a quaint strip of worker's cottages known as Jackson's Row, the property is ideally positioned a stroll from trains and shops, and also walking distance to Lady Robinson's Beach.
