A showcase of inspired design and spectacular renovations, this suburban resort provides the perfect family sanctuary. Welcome to 32 Cocas Street Regents Park.

Privately set on a 961sqm secure block, this breathtaking entertainer offers a seamless interaction between the indoors and out, punctuated by a series of serene outdoor spaces for quiet contemplation or exciting family celebrations.

Starting inside, the modern renovation is chic and stylish. The features and fixtures have been impeccably selected for the most outstanding results.

You are greeted with a breathtaking open plan layout. A stunning sunken lounge with bay window and modern timber blinds provide the central area for indoor family time.

The Master Bedroom is a great size. Air, fan, large robe and light-filled bay window ideally positioned at the front of the home. The Jack and Jill Family bathroom is amazing ? spa bath, shower and toilet have a feeling of peace and tranquillity with modern slate and timber features. Heading down the hall, the two additional bedrooms both with robes and carp...
