

36 Campbell Street Renwick, NSW

Simply Irresistible!

If you're looking for a pristine home that's ready to move straight into, then look no further. Occupying a 757sqm block in a new Renwick enclave, the home has been designed to meet the needs of today's busy families. Superbly light and bright, details such as engineered oak floors, striking black accents, and herringbone feature tiles serve to elevate what is already a truly beautiful home. Low maintenance and high quality, the home is presented over a desirable single level, capitalising on space and light, and including all the features you'll need to live with ease and comfort.
