Spectacular treetop sanctuary with northerly views

Reminiscent of a high-end luxury retreat in the Daintree or Byron Bay hinterland, this bespoke designer residence has been meticulously renovated to match its enchanting setting. Giant glass walls and soaring raked ceilings conspire to create a sense of light and space while accentuate sweeping northerly views and providing easy flow to a magnificent pavilion-like entertainers' deck. Nestled amid beautifully landscaped gardens that nudge native bushland reserve at the rear, its tranquil setting is literally footsteps to Manly Vale Public School or the walking/riding trails, recreational areas at Manly Dam Reserve and Warringah Golf Club.
