Large leafy haven offering spacious family style

Expansive family living in Connells Point looks great in this large-sized multi-level residence that enjoys a sought-after position close to neighbourhood parks and the water's edge. It sits on a high set block with district views and has been well-designed to make it a light-filled home of space and quiet privacy with plenty of potential to add more style and appeal down the track. This fresh and spacious property also holds a highly convenient setting that's walking distance to Connells Point Public School, local shops, Poulton Park and the bus stop.
