

18 George Street Pennant Hills, NSW

'Amblestone' circa 1923, bygone grandeur in a location to envy

Majestically set within breathtaking private gardens, 'Amblestone' beautifully embodies early century excellence in an irresistible family home. Soaring ceilings and bespoke hardwood details feature throughout its spectacular formal and casual spaces, combining with views of award-winning established gardens at every turn across a 714.5sqm corner block. A tranquil sanctuary meticulously maintained by the same family for 55 years, it's a home of historical significance and equal convenience, with Pennant Hills Park, train station, local marketplace and schools all in a direct walk.
