WARNER'S HIDDEN JEWEL

This magnificent home is located on what would arguably be one of Warner Lakes best blocks, with the lake itself as your front yard (No roads to cross). These blocks were rare in the first place and the current owner left nothing to chance by engaging Mark Wust Constructions to build their dream home. The resulting home is stunning in design, quality and location, - offering a sense of privacy and yet allows easy access to everything the lake has to offer. When you stand on the front deck - the uninterrupted view of the lake will be the first thing you notice.

Price: Sold for $777,000
