RECENTLY RENOVATED DELIGHT

The first thing you notice when walking towards the home - is the clean lines and recent renovations that give it great street appeal. The timber front door offers a glimpse of what is to come.

Recently renovated, the kitchen has been cleverly designed, with the L shaped design serving as a center piece for the upstairs living areas. The north facing, relaxing balcony provides a great spot to have breakfast in the morning or sit and read a good book in the afternoon breeze.

Downstairs, the rumpus with access to the covered outdoor BBQ area, allows you enjoy outdoor living. An wooden internal staircase ties the home together and offers anyone with imagination, a home that will either solve a problem or allow them to put their own stamp on it and create a stunning family home
