

6A/2 Guinever Court BETHANIA, QLD

Convenient Location - Walk to Train Station

This townhouse is very welcoming from the functional Kitchen to the neutral fresh paint and new carpets, this is a place you would be happy to come home to. The timber and glass front door gives a great impression of what lies behind. As you enter you are greeted by the newly carpeted staircase with the niche wall leading upstairs and instantly warmed by the freshness of the downstairs living area. The Kitchen is pleasing to the eye and is very workable with good storage, ample bench space and also includes a dishwasher and range hood. Upstairs the master bedroom offers an abundance of space with soft neutral tones and includes built in robes and balcony. The second Bedroom and main bathroom are also located on the upper level and are neat and clean. With a separate Laundry and additional toilet downstairs this townhouse is not only functional by also very appealing. Finishing this great package off are the undercover parking and inground pool within the complex.
