NEVER A DULL DAY

As this bright and cheery unit is sure to impress, and bring a smile to your face. With spacious living and the bonus of a multipurpose room, this wonder family unit is set in a small complex, which is predominantly owner occupied. The open living area leads through to the full size kitchen, and covered entertaining area. Unlike most townhouses there is even a back yard, complete with garden shed. Upstairs offers so much space, and one of the largest Master bedrooms you will ever see in a townhouse. Two other built in bedrooms, hall storage, and a family bathroom and separate toilet complete the upstairs. With added extras like multiple air conditioning units, a large laundry and off street parking, you need to add this property to your must see list.
