

18-20 Pole Crescent NEW BEITH, QLD

A LARGE FAMILY HOME TO CALL YOUR OWN

With an amazing floor plan and so many extras, this home offers one lucky family the potential to add your own personal style and make it your own.

Built in 2008 with over 33 squares under roof, this home has just been freshly painted in neutral tones, providing you with what is the ultimate blank canvas to express yourself and your creative flare.

The well considered design offers you three living areas comprising of a tiled lounge, tiled family and carpeted media room, plus a formal dining, 4 built-in bedrooms, family bathroom, ensuite with spa, study (or 5th bedroom if required), and one of the largest kitchens, purpose built for catering to a large brood.

The kitchen is any entertainers dream with a huge central island with stone benchtops, 900mm freestanding oven with gas and an abundance of cupboard space.

The central kitchen has the most impressive bush outlook though the stacked sliding doors and flows seamlessly to the formal dining area, with direct access out to the alfresco space.
