

4 Homebush Drive REGENTS PARK, QLD 3 1 2

REGENTS PARK IS SO HOT RIGHT NOW !!!!

Price: $365,000

Location is everything. PLUS this house is AWESOME!!
There are 2 large separate living areas, both tiled, which makes life easy when cleaning. The kitchen is excellent with lots of cupboards plus glass feature doors and a servery window and screen that slides open out to the outdoor entertaining area. The main bedroom has a walk through robe into the 2 way bathroom, the other bedrooms both have built-in robes and ceiling fans.
The outdoor entertaining area is perfect for weekend BBQs and there is a double carport with drive through side access to the rear yard which is a really good size 790m2 for a family to run around and play football or cricket. Perfect position and a great property!!
