The Essence of Inner North Living

There is nothing more iconic than a classic inner north home, perched amongst a canopy of oak trees. Privately built in circa 1960's, the home enjoys modern upgrades and embraces the features of its era, the home provides a comfortable front separate living, an eat-in kitchen and three light and bright bedrooms. Enjoying the inner north lifestyle, this home is within walking distance to the local Watson shops, playing fields and Majura Primary School and a short bus ride or light rail into the Canberra Centre.
