

32A Rupert Street Mount Colah, NSW

Family home nestled back from the road

The fact that it is nestled back from the road at the end of a cul-de-sac creates a sense of privacy and community. The National Park views would be a stunning backdrop to enjoy from the superb entertaining spaces. The considered floorplan, with a private master wing, formal and informal zones, and a flexible self-contained level, would provide ample space for a growing family. The self-contained apartment would be ideal for a home office, teenager retreat or in-law accommodation. The beautifully landscaped 1180 sqm with lawn ideal for the kids with spaces to play.
