Smart seaside style with elevated ocean views

As a first home or bayside investment that really shines, this is the one. With its bright interiors and elevated aspect, it is well-proportioned throughout and captures sparkling views over Botany Bay. The property is set high in a quality full brick security building and is well-placed less than one block from Brighton-Le-Sands Beach and within easy strolling distance to Bay Street's shopping and dining options, with city bus connections just a few footsteps away.
