A Home with So Much To Offer

A substantial and unique offering, this imposing art deco freestanding property has all the charm of the era including vaulted ornate ceilings and hand crafted original wood panelling. The generous floorplan offers formal lounge & separate dining rooms, study area and a family room leading to a large sunny terrace. The perfect North East aspect allows the interiors to be blessed with an abundance of natural light and sunshine. Pleasant views are captured from the living areas of both Primrose Park & water glimpses of Willoughby Bay.
