

3 Redman Street Seaforth, NSW

One of a kind Hamptons masterpiece combining luxury and panoramic views

With a breezy contemporary coastal aesthetic, generously proportioned interiors and light-drenched living and entertaining spaces, this exceptionally well-designed family home is both luxurious and practical, beautifully combining style, function and comfort. The home's relaxed, yet sophisticated design focuses on the year-round indoor/outdoor living and entertaining that works so well for families, with an upper-level living area and large covered terrace boasting views sweeping over to the city skyline and across the brilliant blue waters of Middle Harbour - the perfect spot for taking in Sydney's famous New Year's Eve fireworks.

- Entertainers' dream kitchen with bi-fold windows opening to al fresco entertaining space, centre island/breakfast bar, stone benchtops, gas cooktop, European appliances and butler's pantry
- Generous living room with wainscotting and plantation shutters, overlooking dining and beyond to pool and garden
- Swimming pool with sandstone surround, timber decking and water feature
