Ergonomics of an Engineer!

33 years of hard work and memories have made this house a home! It's time for these empty nesters to fly the coop and make a new start. On offer here is something amazing, the perfect family home with so much attention to detail, there isn't anything else you could possibly need! The original house has been renovated into a comfortable & classy home. 3 bedrooms all with AC, ceiling fans, built in robes and your own private access to the wrap around deck. The newly renovated bathroom showcases sleek modern touches, as does the brand new en suite to the main bed. Top notch carpentry and building visibly noticeable when you enter the 'hub' of the home, exposed beams the eye catching feature throughout the inviting living space, right through to the kitchen, which is hand crafted with recycled timber. New gas cook top matching in perfect with the quality stainless appliances. Adding more to the 'WOW' factor is the fully enclosed sun room that over looks the large in ground swimming pool. Complying to Council standard & regulations with crime safe window mesh fitted for protection & new pump recently fitted. For some quiet time or space for the visitors, head on up to the self contained 'loft'. Complete with its own kitchenette and stylish bathroom, private undercover deck and lovely views. Perfect fit for the teenager, parents retreat, or possible income maker if leased out, the current owners use it for the perfect office space. Ok, we are down to the business end... the shedding! This one is showroom worthy, a massive 12m x 9m color bond shed,
