

25 Barnard Street GLADSTONE, NSW

5 1 1

Imagine if the walls could talk!

Crossed between Colonial & Federation, with Gabled Roof & Bullnose Iron over the front veranda, supported by timber post with curved bracing. The owners of this prestige home have restored and kept its natural beauty, to reflect the era it was proudly born.

The bargeboards are elaborately carved and have stood the test of time to remain with this historical listed home in picturesque Gladstone. Said to be built by George Jeffery, an early Queensland Insurance Company Agent, back in the late 1800s.

Imagine if the walls could talk, this home would have some fine tales to tell, the original family from the 1800s were music lovers, and still today some 200 years later, a grand piano takes a place of pride & still stand very prominent.

Modern timber kitchen with stainless appliances, and beautifully incorporated breakfast bar, this open space is just another area to be enjoyed by the whole family, spacious open lounge & dining with slow combustion wood heater for those colder winter months....
