Rare River Views

The team at LJ Hooker Kempsey are very excited to list this rare property, to go public auction on Thursday March 23, 2017. The vendors are reluctantly selling, and as you can imagine are very emotional about the sale, as it is the first time the property has gone on the market since 1918. Nearly 100 years of family history. It is not every day, the market has, the opportunity to purchase a property like this. Situated high on Druitt Street, this 2054sqm property will suit those wanting to utilise their flare for decorating and renovating.
