The floor plan promotes flexible and spacious living options incorporating three huge bedrooms, and a smaller office. Rustic style bathroom, spacious lounge room with working fire place, massive open plan kitchen, that has been renovated ideally to incorporate the aura of the property. To the rear, there needs to be some finishing touches, with laundry and another spacious room, requiring some attention. There is an ideal space for dining outdoors amid the manicured gardens and established plantings, which also backs on to one of the largest backyards in Kempsey. The back yard has access from Jefferys Lane, with potential for further development....
