The quintessential holiday home

Located barely 300m from the sands of Copacabana beach, this family property is your ticket to quality holiday investment returns or relaxed beachside living. On a sizeable 765 sqm block with dual street access, the home boasts beach and ocean views, as well as a delightful leafy, private outlook across the extra-large backyard. With large deck for entertaining and to take in the views as well as catch the cooling sea breezes, the home also features a charming original kitchen, spacious main living room and versatile layout with adjustable configuration. Constructed of quality hardwood timbers, this classic holiday home has recently undergone a number of structural upgrades such as new deck and steel posts, renewed roof and retaining walls. Currently operating as a highly successful 5-star Airbnb, the opportunity exists to maintain the listing, and purchase the property as complete walk-in/walk-out with all furniture included.
