

29 Edward Street Turrella, NSW

Beautifully modernised bungalow

Melding old and new with elegant flair, this timeless double-brick freestanding bungalow is a ready-made family home with room to grow.

With a modernised kitchen and bathroom, contemporary tiled floors and fresh white walls throughout, the welcoming home is beautifully presented and flows from the living zone to an alfresco area and lush lawn - all basking in a bright north-easterly orientation.

Sitting prettily in a quiet side-street, the home is just 600 metres from Turrella Station and a stroll from parks and nature trails. Marrickville's small bar and restaurant scene is a short drive away, all combining to provide immense value and lifestyle appeal within 10km of the CBD.

- Freestanding double-brick bungalow on a level 499 sq m block
- Large lounge with original mantle, ornate high ceilings and picture rails
