Ripe for renovation in coveted lakeside suburb

This lovingly cared for split level brick home offers so much potential for the owner. With its contemporary layout on a large, level block with an inviting facade, the home is ready to be revitalised into your dream forever home.

Backing directly onto bushland with rear access to your property, you're also within easy walking distance to the lake, walkways, the popular Croudace Bay parks, sporting grounds, and the Valentine Bowling Club. It's also a short walk to school for the kiddies, just 600m to Valentine Public School and there are dedicated pedestrian crossings at the Regal Way/Croudace Bay Rd intersection.

The second living area is separate and also provides access to the attached double garage and laundry with third toilet. Access to the large, covered patio area and your backyard is also via the second living area which creates a stemless flow from inside to outside. ...
