With multiple sheds across the property and separated into several paddocks, with a lane way running down the left side, almost all the way to the river and stockyards at the front of the property make this an ideal property for graziers, plenty of space for storing machinery and easy access to sort cattle. Worried about water? There are plenty of options available here with a large dam, several water tanks, and a pump available from the River ? this property really does have it all. The River once had a track to it ? it wouldn't b...
