Renovator's Dream in Prime Location

Property will not be sold prior to auction

Nestled in the heart of Campbelltown this 3-bedroom brick home presents an exceptional opportunity for those with a vision for renovation. Situated on a generous 594.4sqm block, this property offers ample space for potential upgrades and expansions, making it an ideal choice for those looking to create their dream home.

The home includes a large living room, and separate dining space off the kitchen. The bedrooms are spacious and well-appointed. The bathroom has great potential to be transformed into a modern and luxurious space.

Outside, the large backyard provides plenty of room for outdoor entertaining or for children to play. The property also features a single lock up garage and off-street parking, providing convenience for busy families.

Surrounded by an array of local amenities, residents enjoy easy access to schools, churches, and the bustling town centre shopping precinct. Macarthur Square, a shopping destination with a variety of shops, restaurants, and entertainment options, is just a short distance...
