Boasting an inviting interior, an exceptionally spacious living and dining area, and a large corner-block, this wonderful three-bedroom home offers so much for first home buyers or investors. It's nestled within a quiet pocket, walking distance from local parks, bus stops, and shops. With its pleasant timber accents, carpeting, air conditioning and heater, the front-facing living room serves as a particularly satisfying space to relax in. It wraps around through the dining area and into the central kitchen, which features plenty of cabinetry and easy service to both dining and the back deck.
