The Australian Dream

When a residential home meets the countryside, opportunities like this don't last long. On offer is 35 Havelock Street, an expansive, renovated family home with pastoral views on a very generous 721m block of land.

It's not often that you can find a property located so close to all essential amenities, whilst still giving you the calming feeling that you aren't apart of hustle and bustle of everyday life.

- As you enter, you are greeted by the formal entrance and stunning timber stair case that wraps around to a mud room, or study

- You will love the recently renovated kitchen that is downstairs with an island bench, breakfast bar, Stone bench tops and ample storage all over

- Both the second and third bedrooms are queen sized and both offer split system air condi...
