

1/19 Carnation Terrace Kingston, TAS 2 1 2

Superbly Designed Apartment With Generous Dimensions

This grand apartment offers an impressive lifestyle that oozes luxury. With panoramic mountain views it offers a private, peaceful outlook located in a quiet and popular area of Kingston.

The moment you walk through the doors of this property you get a sense of luxury and superiority. Entering the solid timber doors, you step into the open plan living areas with a combination of quality tiles and timber overlay floor boards. The well-equipped kitchen has all the space and gesture you would expect from a large family home and encompasses quality appliances and granite bench tops.

The laundry also has an abundance of space and storage and there is also another separate room opposite the bathroom which could be set up as an office or storage area....

The apartment has two double bedrooms with new carpet and built in robes....

An admirable addition to this unique property is a detached fully powered studio perfect for a private teenage retreat, an artist or separate hobby room....

Insulating qualities for both temperature control and sound proofing of this home are exceptional. The internal and external wall construction is polystyrene core filled with concrete and the windows are all double glazed. The heating is hydronic floor heating with ther...

Price:

Offers Over $395,000

Stone Real Estate

Southern Tasmania