

4 Rutland Place Wahroonga, NSW

7

3

2

Renovator's dream in tranquil leafy cul-de-sac

Sitting proudly on a 930sqm (approx) plot is this spacious, light-filled home that just years to be brought back to its former glory. Brimming with potential, the footprint and floorplan of this property make this a renovator's dream.

A welcoming entrance hall leads to multiple ground floor living areas which flow freely between zones and out to the north-facing rear. Seven bedrooms situated on both the ground floor and upper level, offer options for a large family with in-law older child self-contained accommodation downstairs.

This is a substantial family home with north-to-rear aspect in a sought-after location just moments from Cliff Oval and the beauty of Kuring-gai National Park and within easy reach of exceptional public and private schools.

Price:

Undisclosed

Andy Howden

0423 264 989