Smart style in a classic period home

Behind its adorable facade of classic character, this Victorian-era semi is a well-presented period home that displays a fresh modern makeover and many good quality finishes throughout. The immaculate residence offers an easy-to-maintain single-level layout with light and airy living spaces, a private outdoor area and a premium location in a sought-after north Newtown street. There is also Hollis Park, local cafes, the Farmers' Market and Macdonaldtown station, all within strolling distance from the front door.
