Exquisite family home in prestigious east-side pocket

As you step inside this charming villa, the scene that unfolds is an exquisite blend of early 20th Century Mediterranean-style design with sophisticated 21st Century living. Built by architect, Augustus Aley, its carefully crafted footprint takes full advantage of the north-east to rear aspect, with a central courtyard and entertaining terrace, bordered by bright living areas and manicured gardens, encapsulating the essence of relaxed indoor/outdoor living.
