

11 Granville Street Fairfield Heights, NSW 3 1 2

Opportunity to renovate or rebuild

Idyllically positioned on a desirable corner block, this charming 1960s residence is one of the few original homesteads still standing in Fairfield Heights. Small updates compliment its traditional period features and make an immediate impression.

- Stunning wraparound veranda constructed from solid timber
- Defined living spaces including lounge with ornate fireplace
- Open kitchen with gas fittings overlooks the dining room
- Generous bedroom, two of which lead to a bright sunroom
- Decorative ceilings, versatile living options for any family
- Fantastic investment potential or demolish and start again
- Immediately liveable with modern bathroom and storage
- External access from laundry, level lawns, cottage gardens

Frank Bartolone

0411 477 758