Rouse Farm ? A Historic Family Estate in the Heart of the Hawkesbury

Price: $3,200,000 guide

Steeped in history and beautifully renovated for modern family living, Rouse Farm is a rare opportunity to say yes to tree-lined country life without sacrificing comfort or convenience. Originally built in the 1890s by Johannes Christianson on land first granted to Richard Rouse by Governor Lachlan Macquarie, this remarkable 13-acre estate is one of the Hawkesbury's most significant heritage holdings.
