Period charm with a resort-style entertaining

Set behind its classic facade, this expansive three-bedroom Period-era home delivers generous proportions, timeless character and an exceptional indoor?outdoor lifestyle. High ceilings, ornate decorative cornices and oversized rooms define the interior, with one bedroom opening to the front verandah via elegant French doors. All rooms feature double glazed windows for quality sound control and remote controlled external shutters, while the outdoor entertaining also has acoustic sound proof insulation.

The beautifully renovated kitchen flows seamlessly to the true highlight of the home - a private Balinese-inspired undercover entertaining area being offered as pictured with all furniture included! Complete with powered blinds, a stacked-stone feature wall, earthy finishes and acoustic insulation to minimise outside noise, this tranquil space is ideal for year-round entertaining while overlooking the backyard.

Side access leads to outstanding vehicle accommodation with both a double carport and double garage, rounding out a home that blends period elegance with modern lifestyle appeal in a convenient Cessnock setting, less than a 5-minute walk / 600m to Cessnock CBD.
