Stunning waterfront beach house with exclusive views of Pittwater and self-contained studio.

Located on a coveted nor-east facing block and perfectly positioned right by the water's edge, this gorgeous home is one of the very rare 'true waterfront' properties remaining on Scotland Island and offers a truly distinctive experience.

Bathed in natural sunlight, the bright interiors of this 3-level craftsman-built home flow effortlessly into numerous alfresco entertaining areas and completely self-contained granny flat to the rear. A timeless design, 180-degree Pittwater views, crisp cabinetry and striking teak floorboards all combine to make this home the complete package.

With a private jetty and beautiful beach on your doorstep, this is the perfect family home, couples haven or versatile weekender.
